

The Capital Region Archives Dinner Committee, in co-operation with Capital Area Archivists, is proud to present the Fifteenth Annual Capital Region Archives Dinner at the Edison Club in Rexford, NY.

Our main speaker this year will be Dr. Gerald Zahavi, Professor of History and Director of the Documentary Studies Program at the University at Albany. Focusing on an important aspect of General Electric's social life, Association Island, a corporate summer recreation retreat and conference center owned by GE for half a century, Dr. Zahavi will explore the usefulness of utilizing non-textual sources to interpret the often hidden social and cultural dimensions of economic history.

Past Capital Region Archives Dinners have similarly spotlighted the work of authors, artists, historians, musicians and photographers who made use of archival records to enlighten, educate and entertain present-day America.

The Archives Dinner Committee is also pleased to recognize individuals and organizations who or which have made significant contributions to the preservation and enhancement of local archives as part of our annual celebration.

Last year, we recognized Sister Elaine Wheeler, Robert W. Arnold III, and Andrew Raymond. In recent years we've honored Jan Allen's work with student historical research, Albert Fowler of the Crandall Library, historical painter Len Tantillo, Kathleen Newkirk, Paul and Mary Liz Stewart of the Underground Railroad Workshop, Warren County Clerk Pam Vogel, Diane Tarity and Wendy McConkey of Saratoga County Cooperative Extension, Assembly Member John J. McEneny, Dr. Cathryne Welch of the Foundation of NYS Nurses, State Archivist Christine Ward, the Town of Niskayuna, the University at Albany, State Senator Joseph Bruno, and educator Deborah Escobar.
