Note: cited (with pictures of the covers of the series with different pasted pictures) Caldwell Catalogue 1901-1902 (p.19, price 50¢). Having located a title with one pasted picture while the catalogue depicts it with another suggests that each title might have appeared in each of the 4 pictures. The 4 pasted pictures are: (1) a boy with long hair and high turned-down boots bowing, tipping a broad-brimmed feathered hat to the ground with one hand; (2) a woman, kneeling, looking over her shoulder, holding a flower she has just cut with scissors held in her other hand (as in 1901c [1]); (3) a boy blowing a bugle with one hand and holding his hat in the other; & (4) a girl holding an umbrella in front of her with one hand and a hatbox at her side with the other. (For examples of other titles in this 1901 series see Miriam Snow Mathes Collection, State University of New York, Albany). Beginning in 1906 the annual series list was printed on the half-title page verso; the 1901 Editha editions have no such bound-in series list. The 1901 Editha series began with 10 titles; the 1902 Editha series (Caldwell Catalogue 1902-1903) increased this to 15 (adding Little Lame Prince, Sleeping Beauty, Adventures of a Brownie, The Pygmies, & The Brownies). Unless more information is forthcoming, the only way to distinguish 1901 Edithas from 1902 Edithas would be the appearance of these 5 new titles that were added in 1902.

Though Pinocchio is listed in Editha for 1902, I deliberately chose not to add a 1902 entry because it is not clear whether a new Pinocchio edition was issued or whether the 1902 listing merely refers to unsold 1901 stock.

The Editha Series, intended for little girls, is named for its first title, Editha's Burglar by Frances Hodgson Burnett, a popular novel and play of the time. Pinocchio and all the other titles are the same as their smaller versions in other Caldwell series, but are printed on larger pages with wider margins.

The Editha Series *Pinocchio, it is important to note, CONTRARY TO its title page (apparently derived from 1900a [1]), has NO illustrations by René Quentin in this edition (all are by Enrico Mazzanti). This edition derives from Jordan, Marsh's 1898a, where the title page does not cite an illustrator. Finding Quentin named in 1899a (from which 1900a [1] derived), the Caldwell editors apparently assumed that all of the black-and-white Mazzanti illustrations were by Quentin.
